Monograph 6: Pretrial Motions (Revised Edition) is a substantial revision of the original edition of this monograph, which the Michigan Judicial Institute (MJi) published in 1992. This revised edition contains expanded descriptions of individual motions and a pull-out chart summarizing those individual motions for quick reference. Most importantly, the rules governing criminal pretrial motions contained in statutes, court rules, and case law have been brought up to date.

MJi staff members Leonhard J. Kowalski, Dawn F. McCarty, and Margaret Vroman authored the 1992 Pretrial Motions monograph. Hon. John T. Hammond, 2d Circuit Court, Hon. Dennis C. Kolenda, 17th Circuit Court, and Hon. Lynda A. Tolen, 5th District Court, served as editorial advisory committee members for the first edition. The first edition of this monograph was funded in part by a grant from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation.

Monograph 6: Pretrial Motions (Revised Edition) was prepared by Hon. Dennis C. Kolenda, Mary E. Fielding, and Tobin L. Miller, MJi Publications Administrator. Mary Lovik, former MJi Publications Administrator, and Thomas Smith, MJi Research Attorney, served as editors for the project. Mary Ann McDaid, MJi Multi-Media Development Specialist, was responsible for page layout, cover design, and coordination of reproduction. Lori Ann Sheets, MJi Program Assistant, assisted with distribution.

The authors of this revised edition were greatly assisted by an editorial advisory committee whose members reviewed draft text and provided valuable feedback. The members of the editorial advisory committee are Hon. Karen Fort Hood, 3d Circuit Court, Hon. Thomas Edward Jackson, 3d Circuit Court, Hon. Dennis C. Kolenda, 17th Circuit Court, and Hon. Thomas Ludington, 42d Circuit Court.

Monograph 6: Pretrial Motions (Revised Edition) is part of MJi's Criminal Procedure Monograph Series. The series contains the following titles:

- Monographs 1 and 2: *Issuance of Arrest Warrants & Issuance of Search Warrants
- Monographs 3 and 4: *Misdemeanor Arraignments and Pleas & Felony Arraignments in District Court
